

REGULATION 11

AWARDS, COURSES AND UNITS

Current version with effect from: 1 Apr 2024

Approved by: Council

Approval History: 13 Mar 2024

11.1 Purpose of this Regulation

11.1.1 The objects of the University of Divinity as prescribed by the University of Divinity Act section 4 include the conferral of 'degrees, diplomas and certificates and other awards in Divinity and associated disciplines'.

11.1.2 Using the powers contained in section 30 (j) of the University of Divinity Act, the Council has resolved that all matters concerning the degrees, diplomas, certificates and other awards of the University are subject to this Regulation and policies of the University pursuant to it. This includes all courses and units offered by the University through its Colleges or Schools.

11.2 Definitions

For the purposes of this Regulation:

- a) an award of the University of Divinity is a qualification approved by the University Council that is recognised by the conferral of a degree, diploma or certificate
- b) a group of awards is a sequence of awards in the same or similar area that provides for a student enrolling in a longer award to exit early with a shorter award or for a student who successfully completes a shorter award to proceed to a longer award
- c) a course is a sequence of units or other educational activities approved by the Academic Board that leads to the conferral of an award of the University
- d) a unit is discrete quantum of study organised around a topic that contributes to a course of study leading to an award of the University.
- e) 'Divinity' means the study of religious beliefs, practices and thought that leads to awards in Divinity, Ministry, Philosophy, Spirituality or Theology.
- f) 'Associated disciplines' means study leading to awards in any area of knowledge or professional practice that in the opinion of both the Academic Board and the Council falls within section 4 of the Act (Objects of University).

11.7.3 The Academic Board must specify in the Course Record the Colleges and Schools of the University that are authorised to admit and enrol students in the award or awards covered by that Course Record. Prior to such authorisation being granted, the Academic

Board must be satisfied that the College or School understands and is able to execute its obligation to ensure that any student admitted or enrolled in that award has access to the course and units across the University necessary to complete that award.

- 11.7.4 The Academic Board decides the academic fields to be included in Schedule A: Course Record Template.
- 11.7.5 The Vice-Chancellor decides the administrative fields to be included in Schedule A: Course Record Template.
- 11.7.6 Academic information in a Course Record may only be approved or amended by the Academic Board, subject to the University's Course Development or Course Modification Procedures.
- 11.7.7 Administrative information in a Course Record may only be approved or amended by the Vice-Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor's delegate.
- 11.7.8 The approved Course Record must be publicly available on the University's website, excluding information recorded by the University solely for statutory or regulatory or administrative purposes that is not required for a prospective or current student or a course advisor to understand the purpose and requirements of the award.
