- 4.3 In the event that a student elects to pay tuition fees upfront and that student is discontinued from a unit of study after the census date and has not paid their tuition fees, the student is not permitted to re-enrol or continue studies at the University until the tuition fees for the discontinued unit are paid.
- 4.4 If a student who has paid fees upfront withdraws from a unit of study on or before the census date for that unit of study, the fee for that unit of study is refunded to the student by the University.
